DUTCHESS COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

“The New York Gateway: Immigration, Emigration and Migration” is the topic of the May meeting of the Dutchess County Genealogical Society

New York has been the heart of U.S. immigration since the 1600s. Discover the origins of key immigrant and emigrant groups and settlers and where they went. Learn the New York migration routes and transportation modes that your New York ancestors may have taken. Putting your ancestors in the context of their times is key for researching them. Some research resources and ideas are featured.

Our speaker, Jane E. Wilcox is a contributing Editor of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Record; a Member of the New York State Archives Advisory Committee and NYG&B's New York Family History Advisory Committee; Host of "The Forget-Me-Not Hour" podcast on www.BlogTalkRadio.com/JaneEWilcox; and a Member of the Association of Professional Genealogists and Genealogical Speakers Guild. She has an M.S. in journalism, and a B.A. in colonial American history and English literature.

All are welcome.
