

Dutchess County Genealogical Society Presents: Help from Your Local Historical Societies...Breaking Down Brick Walls with Historical Documents

In Partnership with:
The Millbrook Historical Society
& the Millbrook Library

Saturday, September 28th
from 1 to 3 PM

In the Bennett Room at the Millbrook Library
3 Friendly Lane, Millbrook, NY

DCGS President, local historian and professional genealogist Valerie LaRobardier will lead a talk beginning with a brief overview of genealogy record group basics, continuing on to show how historical sources can provide clues and stand in for other records, followed by a discussion of how to use area local historical society and public library local history collections. We will use the Greater Nine Partners and Crum Elbow records to illustrate.

There will be time for questions and socialization. Light refreshments will be served.

Please RSVP to <https://forms.gle/ZBg2jzQJxBad7Lpi6> so that we may plan appropriately. Thank you!
